Better By The Dozen Plus Two, Part Two: Lessons Learned Through Loss And Leukemia By A Family Of Sixteen

Synopsis

Better By The Dozen Plus Two, Part Two subtitled Lessons Learned through Loss and Leukemia by a Family of Sixteen is the sequel to Better By The Dozen Plus Two subtitled Anecdotes and a Philosophy of Life by a Family of Sixteen (2007). The story relates how a large family stays strong, hopeful and faith-filled while learning the lessons of life through the challenges of foreclosure, death, loss, and leukemia through surrender and reliance on God and His love manifested through the love of others. Praise for Better By The Dozen Plus Two, Part Two Wow! An amazing tale that clearly illustrates that God is in charge. Just when you thought there was no hope for James's recovery, everything falls into place better than you could have hoped for. The Littletons prove the truth of Psalm 40: I waited patiently for the Lord.... As a big fan of the first book, I thoroughly enjoyed reading the latest on all the Littleton kids. May God bless the Littletons as much as their inspiring story has blessed me. -Jeff King, Division Manager, St. Maximilian Mary Kolbe Division, Lighthouse Catholic Media, NFP "A cancer diagnosis can test even the most devout faith, and can cause severe rifts within a family. The Littletons are anything but typical! They attack obstacles with head-on determination as one unit to face down any life-challenge regardless of the severity of the storm with no dent in their trust in God. This book is moving and real!" -Joni Aldrich, author, speaker, show host on W4CS.com, Cancer Support Network "As I read this true story of a faith-filled family's journey through uncertain, challenging, and painful times, I was reminded how families circled the wagons when one or more of its members were threatened, and also of the courage, strength and unconditional love provided by the matriarchs of these families. Kathleen Littleton fits the description of a modern-day, Christian pioneer woman. - DeeAnn Smith, Radio Show Host, "Up to Us! " Catholic Women Who Live and Lead with Faith " When I got to the words "We were being purified, and God was stripping us of our earthly attachments so that we might come to love Him even more, rely on Him more fully and render all the glory of His saving power back to Him in testimony," the Spirit of God moved mightily upon me, and I could sense His strong anointing upon this book. When God's anointing is upon somebody's life, it is no longer the individual who speaks, but God. I have no doubt that God is going to speak to many people through this book. No doubt whatsoever. -Lorraine Espenhain, freelance writer, religious instructor, and homeschooler About the Author Kathleen Littleton is first and foremost, a wife and mother of nineteen children, fourteen living on earth and five in heaven. She is currently obtaining her Masters in Theological Studies while working as a Director of Religious Education and part-time for the diocesan tribunal. She obtained her Juris Doctorate Degree in Law and a Bachelor of Science Degree in Secondary Education. She gave up her career as an attorney to become a stay-at-home mother when her first child was born. With her husband of twenty-nine years, James Littleton, she co-authored Better by the Dozen, Plus Two, subtitled Anecdotes and a Philosophy of Life from a Family of Sixteen (2007). Kathleen and Jim are available as speakers, individually or as a couple, on a wide range of healing, marriage, faith and family topics; their guest appearances on Catholic television and radio programs have included EWTN Live with Fr. The Littleton's approach to parenting is solid and really confirmed much of how my wife and I raised our children. I could relate as well having a big family. It is chock full of solid parenting lessons and Catholic foundation that can lead families to the next level. Their ability to handle trials as well is an inspiration. I highly recommend!

Yes, there really are modern-day miracles and modern-day heroes. This book introduces you to an amazing family with 14 children and how they deal with dad's life-threatening illness. If you are a person of little faith, here is a spoiler alert: by the end you will have trouble NOT having faith.
